

JUNE 2010

THE WEAVING ROOM AT BLUSTER BAY IN SANDPOINT, IDAHO

WEAVING CLASSES

BEGINNING WEAVING II

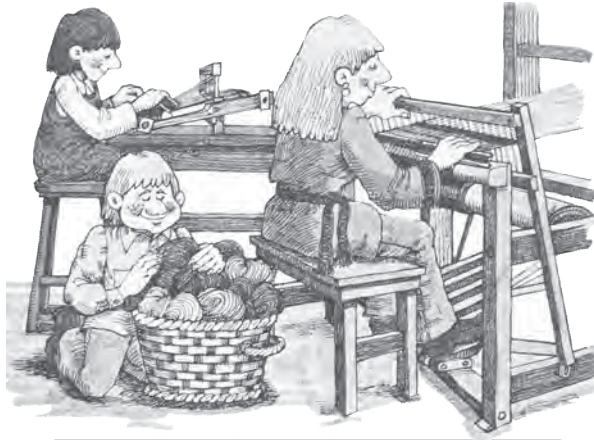

Sat. June 12 & Sun. June 13
8:30am until 5:00pm both days

The weaving adventure continues!

Building upon knowledge gained in a very beginning class, students will learn to read and thread a more complicated draft, work with more than one color in a warp, explore the amazing variety of twill weaves, work with cotton yarns, and learn additional weaving techniques and tips, and finishes.

During the 16-hour course each student will weave 2 different, beautiful and useful cotton hand towels. Prerequisites include knowing how to read a draft and how to warp a loom.

Cost: $145.00 includes all materials and use of a loom and other equipment.

VERY BEGINNING WEAVING

Sat. June 26 & Sun. June 27
8:30am until 5:00pm both days

Become a weaver! In this class, designed for brand new weavers, you will weave your first project start to finish while learning how to use a 4-shaft loom. Instruction covers equipment and the weaver's vocabulary, warping, reading drafts and figuring yarn requirements. We'll explore the many patterns possible with a simple twill threading, and get to know wool as a weaving fiber.

Basic weave structures are illustrated with sample weaving, and the completion of a beautiful and useful wool scarf.

Course fee: $145.00 includes all materials and use of a loom and other equipment.
